Course description

The goal of the course is to introduce the main issues of development economics. What affects economic growth, inequality, and poverty? Why do some countries achieve high levels of economic development and others do not? What are the policies governments can implement to change the growth path of their countries? In this course we will initially approach these questions from a “macro” perspective and later introduce a “microeconomic” view of the problems.

The contract

Requirements

All assignments mentioned below must be turned in at the beginning of the class or left in my office before the class meets. Only under extreme circumstances (such as medical emergencies) will late assignments be accepted at the discretion of the instructor. The dates for all exams (once established) and assignments are final.

Four problem sets	5% each.
Two midterm exams (around week 3.5 and week 6.5)	25% each
One final (Tuesday December 9, 9-11am)	30%.

Grades

To convert your overall numeric grade to a letter grade use the following rule:

Number	Letter
90 or above	A
80-89.9	B
70-79.9	C
60-69.9	D
Below 60	F

Sub-letter grades (eg., A+, B-, C) will be determined later in the quarter but they usually correspond to breaks of the same magnitude within the bracket.

Communications

Most communication will take place during class. Otherwise I will send an email through ilearn. It is the student's responsibility to make sure that the email listed on ilearn is valid. If you do not use your UCR account make the appropriate changes to have your UCR emails sent to your preferred account.
